Business context · Stakeholders · Audience needs · Objectives · Mode selection · AI readiness

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

LU1 · VISUAL STORY

Define the decision before designing the deck

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

Key Concepts — Context, Objectives and Modes

1. Business presentations exist to inform, recommend, persuade, align or decide; the desired audience action defines success.

2. Organisational context, stakeholder power and audience knowledge determine the message depth, tone and evidence needed.

3. A precise objective combines audience, action, outcome and success evidence before any slide is generated.

4. Mode selection — live, virtual, hybrid or self-guided — changes interaction design, pacing, accessibility and follow-up.

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

Five Principles of Effective Business Presentations

The presentation is a decision instrument, not a document-reading exercise.

Purpose before production

Define the decision, action or understanding the presentation must create.

Audience before content

Tailor depth, language, evidence and mode to the people in the room.

Message before material

Build a logical answer before selecting slides, images or templates.

Evidence before decoration

Use visuals to make comparisons, trends, processes and trade-offs clearer.

Action before applause

Finish with a decision, owner, date and follow-through measure.

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

Business Presentation Dos and Don'ts

Good practice removes friction between the audience and the required decision.

	Don't	Do
Objective	Open PowerPoint and start writing	Write the audience action and success evidence first
Audience	Reuse one deck for everyone	Tailor context, concerns, proof and vocabulary
Scope	Show everything you know	Keep the main story focused; move detail to an appendix
Close	End with 'Any questions?'	Restate recommendation, decision, owner and timing

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

The Presentation Brief in Six Questions

1. Why now?
2. Who decides?
3. What should they do?
4. What must they believe?
5. What evidence proves it?
6. How will success be observed?

If these answers are unclear, AI will generate a faster version of the wrong presentation.

The Decision Comes Before the Deck

REAL-WORLD EXAMPLE

Meridian Foods Singapore

Meridian needs leadership approval for a 12-week ReadyWise smart-meal pilot. The useful brief is not 'present the product'; it is 'secure approval for the pilot budget and two named owners after resolving margin, privacy and retailer-readiness concerns.'

Decision-Ready Presentation Brief

CASE STUDY

THE SITUATION

Meridian Foods Singapore is considering ReadyWise, an AI-assisted meal-planning service bundled with a new ready-meal range. Leadership has reserved 20 minutes at the next investment committee meeting.

The CFO worries about margin, the Data Protection Officer worries about customer-data use, and the Sales Director wants retailer evidence. Your team must turn this broad situation into a presentation brief before generating slides.

DISCUSSION & DECISION PROMPTS

1. What exact decision should the committee make at the end?
2. What does each stakeholder already know, fear and need to believe?
3. Which three pieces of evidence are essential, and what belongs in the appendix?
4. Which mode best fits this decision and why?

LU2 · VISUAL STORY

From AI first draft to controlled visual evidence

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

Key Concepts — AI-Assisted Story and Collateral Design

1. A business deck uses a clear storyline: situation, complication, key question, answer, evidence and next action.

2. Conclusion-first structure and action titles help executives understand the point before examining the detail.

3. AI tools differ in research, generation, brand control, collaboration, editability and export quality; choose by task and risk.

4. Human review must check factual accuracy, confidentiality, copyright, accessibility, brand fit and decision usefulness.

SCQA: A Business Story Spine

1. Situation — stable context
2. Complication — what changed
3. Question — what must be resolved
4. Answer — recommendation + proof

Executives should encounter the answer early; detail then earns and qualifies it.

Message delivery · Data storytelling · Speaker support · Q&A · Negotiation · Virtual and hybrid delivery

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

LU3 · VISUAL STORY

Present to engage, listen and decide

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

Key Concepts — Engage, Persuade and Handle Discussion

1. Delivery integrates content, organisation and presence: opening, signposting, evidence, transitions, close and call to action.

2. One message per slide, readable visuals and evidence-led charts reduce cognitive load and strengthen persuasion.

3. Questions reveal stakeholder concerns; acknowledge, clarify, answer with evidence and confirm whether the concern is resolved.

4. Negotiation slides make interests, options, trade-offs, boundaries and decisions visible without overwhelming the audience.

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

Content · Organisation · Delivery

The three elements reinforce one another; excellence in one cannot fully compensate for failure in another.

Content

Relevant, accurate and audience-centred ideas supported by credible evidence.

Organisation

A clear beginning, logical progression, signposts and decisive close.

Delivery

Voice, pace, presence, interaction and tool control that make the message usable.

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

Visual Storytelling Dos and Don'ts

Design should make the evidence easier to understand, not merely more attractive.

	Don't	Do
Titles	Label the topic: 'Sales Results'	State the message: 'Repeat orders drove Q2 growth'
Charts	Use 3D effects, legends and rainbow colours	Use direct labels and one purposeful accent
Text	Paste paragraphs from a report	Use a short claim, visual evidence and an implication
Images	Add generic decoration	Use an image only when it proves, explains or humanises the point
Accessibility	Rely on colour and tiny labels	Use readable type, contrast and non-colour cues

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

Handle Questions Without Losing the Room

1. Acknowledge the concern
2. Clarify scope or assumption
3. Answer first
4. Support with evidence
5. Confirm or record follow-up

An honest 'I will verify that by Friday' protects credibility better than an improvised answer.

What is visual evidence for a business decision?

1

Comparison

Use tables or aligned bars when the decision is relative.

2

Trend

Use a line when time and direction matter.

3

Composition

Use stacked bars when parts of a whole must be compared.

4

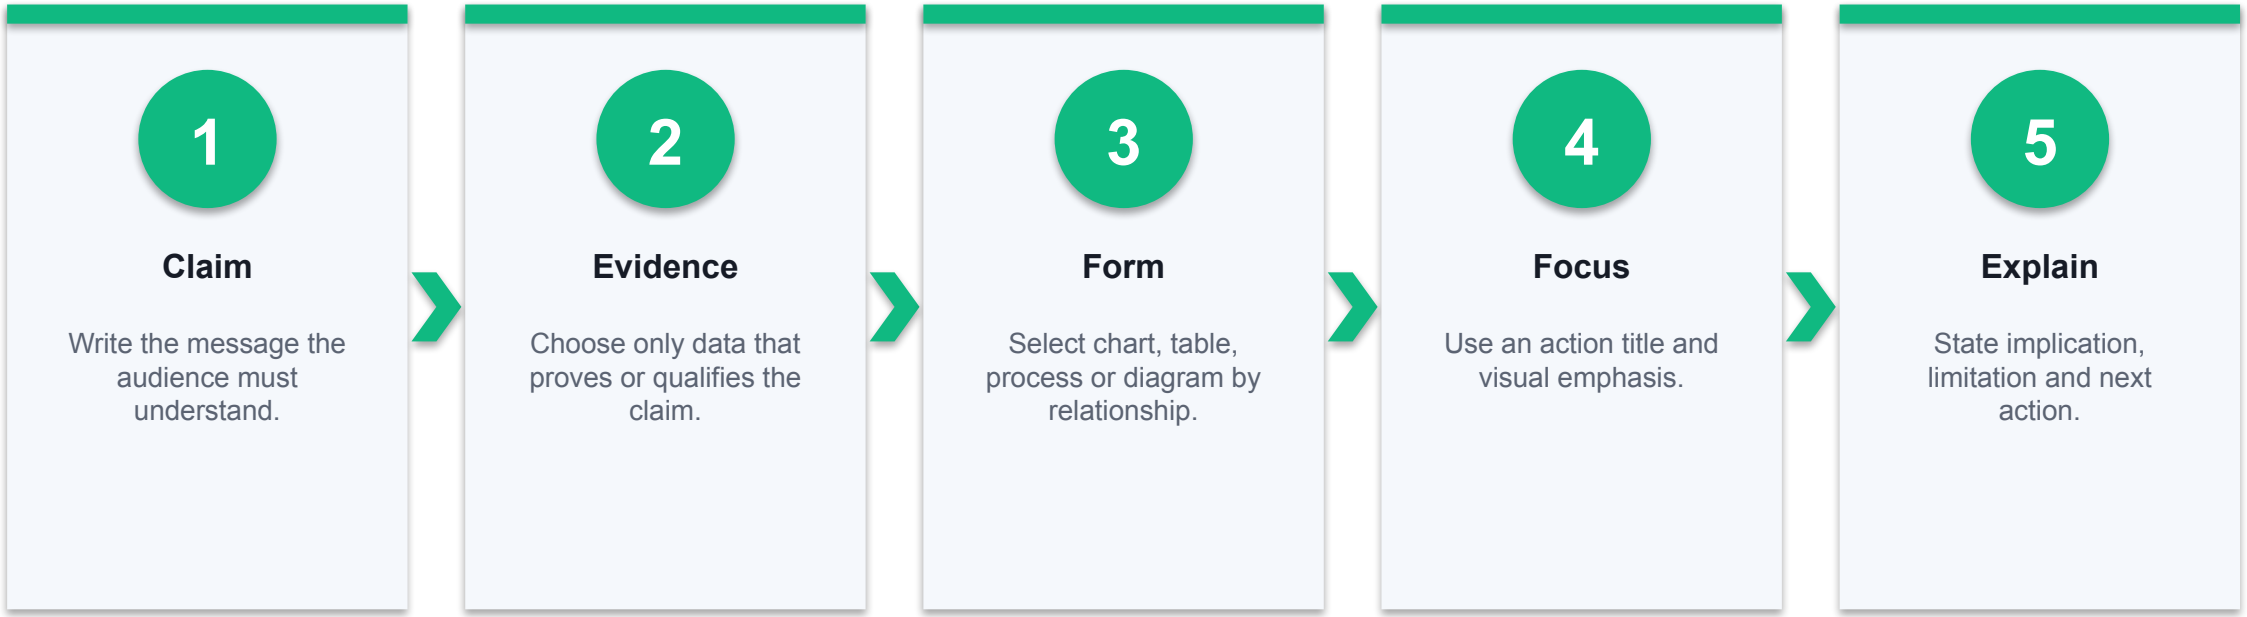

Process

Use a flow, timeline or map when sequence and ownership matter.

Presentation Visual Dos and Don'ts

Don't

- Decorative image unrelated to the claim
- 3D charts and rainbow colours
- Tiny labels and unexplained acronyms
- Copy a dashboard without a takeaway

Do

- Show the relationship that supports the decision
- Use direct labels and restrained emphasis
- Write a complete action title
- Explain source, uncertainty and implication

Evidence-to-Visual Upgrade with Napkin

CASE STUDY

THE SITUATION

Meridian's AI draft contains a dense financial slide, a generic handshake photo and a six-step implementation paragraph. The committee needs to understand the economics, risk gates and ownership in under two minutes.

Use Napkin to explore a process visual, and PowerPoint or Canva to rebuild the economics and implementation slides as editable evidence-led visuals.

You'll produce: Three presentation-ready visual slides and a completed visual-quality checklist

Duration: 45 minutes

LO3 · LU3 · T1 · ACTIVITY 5

Evidence-to-Visual Upgrade with Napkin

DISCUSSION & DECISION PROMPTS

1. What relationship must each visual reveal?
2. Which data is essential and which is noise?
3. Where could the visual mislead without a qualifier?
4. What should the action title say?

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

LO3 · LU3 · T1 · ACTIVITY 5

Evidence-to-Visual Upgrade with Napkin

REFLECT & DISCUSS

- Does the slide work when viewed from the back of the room?
- Can the audience see the implication without decoding the chart?

✓ Facilitator debrief check

Three weak slides are replaced with an evidence chart, a process visual and a decision table, each with an action title and source note.

Check scope, assumption and decision relevance.

3

Answer

Lead with the answer and support it with verified evidence.

4

Confirm

Ask whether the concern is resolved or what remains.

Speaker-Led vs Slide-Led Delivery

Slide-led

- Reads the slide
- Shows every detail at once
- Answers before clarifying
- Ends with 'Any questions?'

Speaker-led

- Explains the decision and uses slides as evidence
- Reveals and signposts ideas
- Clarifies, answers, confirms
- Ends with a specific decision and next action

A confident presenter makes the next decision easier.

Clarity, credibility and audience participation outperform performance theatre.

Review Outcomes and Improve

Success measures · Feedback · Analytics · AI critique · Version control · Continuous improvement

LU4 · VISUAL STORY

Turn outcome evidence into the next better version

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

Key Concepts — Review Outcomes and Improve

1. Outcome measures connect the original objective to evidence such as decisions, actions, understanding and follow-through.

2. Feedback should separate storyline, evidence, design, delivery and interaction so the team knows what to improve.

3. AI critique is a useful second opinion, not an assessor of truth; prompts must specify audience, goal and review criteria.

4. A repeatable review loop captures findings, prioritises changes, assigns ownership, controls versions and retests the deck.

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

LU4 · SUCCESS EVIDENCE

Measure the Outcome, Not the Applause

Presentation quality is visible in decisions, understanding, behaviour and follow-through.

Decision

Was the requested decision made, deferred or rejected — and why?

Understanding

What did the audience accurately recall or misunderstand?

Interaction

Which questions, objections and engagement signals appeared?

Action

Were owners, deadlines and commitments accepted and completed?

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

The Presentation Improvement Loop

1. Compare outcome with objective
2. Diagnose five dimensions
3. Prioritise by impact
4. Assign and revise
5. Retest and approve

Keep a controlled master, version record, reviewer and acceptance criteria for every material change.

© 2026 Tertiary Infotech Academy Pte Ltd

LU4 · AI REVIEW

AI Critique: Useful Second Opinion, Unsafe Final Judge

The review prompt must include the audience, objective and criteria — then every suggestion still needs evidence.

	Risk	Control
Invented issue	AI assumes missing context	Provide the approved brief and label uncertainty
Style preference	AI treats taste as a rule	Require a principle or outcome-evidence rationale
Confidentiality	Sensitive deck enters an unapproved service	Redact, classify and use approved enterprise tools
False confidence	Suggestion sounds authoritative	Triangulate with feedback, standards and business evidence

Outcome Review Scorecard

STORY

Did the audience understand the answer and logic?

PROOF

Were claims credible, sufficient and qualified?

DESIGN

Did visual hierarchy guide attention?

DELIVER

Were pace, transitions and presence controlled?

ENGAGE

Were questions and concerns handled productively?

OUTCOME

Was the intended decision/action achieved?

Each score needs an observed fact; otherwise it is only an opinion.

Useful Feedback vs Vague Feedback

- Direct-label base/downside series and state the margin implication
- Close with decision, two owners and the week-4 review date
